Introduction

Editing and clarity checklist for thesis chapters, papers, and technical reports.

Instructions

- Mark each item as Complete, In Progress, or Not Applicable.
- Attach evidence where possible for auditability.

Checklist

- ☐ Each section opens with purpose and ends with a key takeaway.
- ☐ Claims are supported with either citations or quantitative evidence.
- ☐ Terminology is consistent across abstract, body, figures, and appendix.
- ☐ Paragraphs avoid mixed objectives and preserve one core argument.
- ☐ Tables and figures add non-redundant information.
- ☐ Limitations are explicit and paired with mitigation context.
- ☐ Conclusion reflects results without overgeneralizing implications.
- ☐ Grammar, tense, and voice are consistent with journal conventions.

Summary

Consistent writing controls improve readability, reviewer trust, and acceptance probability.
