Introduction

Checklist for systematic, transparent, and critically useful literature reviews.

Instructions

- Mark each item as Complete, In Progress, or Not Applicable.
- Attach evidence where possible for auditability.

Checklist

- ☐ Search terms include synonyms and domain-specific aliases.
- ☐ Databases and date ranges are explicitly documented.
- ☐ Inclusion and exclusion criteria are reproducible.
- ☐ Study quality criteria are defined before synthesis.
- ☐ Conflicting evidence is reported, not filtered out.
- ☐ Research gaps are backed by synthesis evidence.
- ☐ Citation map reflects methodological and thematic diversity.
- ☐ Final narrative separates evidence, interpretation, and future directions.

Summary

A robust review process prevents narrative bias and reveals high-value contribution spaces.
